BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description. I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all th public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. The said negro is about 25 years of age, and about 5 feet six inches high, of a yellow complexion; he had on a blue cotton jacket, and linen trowsers. When committed, he said he was the property of Mr. Elliot, of Baltimore, but now says he is the property of a Mr. Tyson, of the same place, and that he will be entitled to his freedom in a short time.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. FOR services in the revolutionary war, in the Virginia line on continental establishment.

Owners of, and those entitled (being all who served three years and upwards,) to warrants of the above description, are informed that, under the authority of a law of the United States, locations will, on the 4th day of July next, be permitted to be made on some valuable lands on the Scioto river, and the head waters of the Great Miami river—And as it will be the last opportunity to acquire good land, owners of warrants will do well not to neglect it.

Any warrants forwarded to the subscriber, will be located on such land as he may suppose most likely to please his employers. CADWALLADER WALLACE.

Chillicothe, (Ohio) April 15 19t*

For Sale or Lease,

THE following tracts of land in Charles county, Maryland : one lying on the Potomac, at the mouth of Pomonkey creek, containing three hundred and forty acres, about 16 miles from Alexandria, the larger portion level land, of a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding the most extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than twenty miles up and down the river : located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from its proximity to market, with the advantage of the best navigation, an extremely profitable farm.—The tenant's houses would accommodate the negroes for its cultivation.

A Tract, about one mile back from the former, containing 334 acres, a large portion in wood, white and red oak, and some chesnut ; the remainder a tenement in tolerable repair, the whole a high stiff soil, similar to the one above mentioned.

A Tract, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles from Alexandria, the whole first rate flat river land, now completely enclosed.—On this tract is a noted fishery, called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of two thousand dollars per annum, and where independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season ; besides the profits of the fishery, the advantage of manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, the whole, with a small portion of industry, might be made to produce ten barrels of corn per acre. On the shore, are a dwelling house, houses for holding salt, and curing any quantity of fish, and for the accommodation of hands.

A Tract, lying about 1½ miles from the last mentioned, containing 236 acres, more than 200 of which are in wood, and would cut from 25 to 30 cords per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord. It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots, to suit purchasers.—If preferred, the wood will be sold standing, for so much per acre.

If not disposed of, previous to the first day of Sept. next, the above mentioned arable lands, will be leased out, upon advantageous terms, for five or seven years, at the option of the lessees.

Application to be made to the subscriber, residing near the head of Mattawoman Creek, Charles county, Maryland.

St. Louis, June 9.

On Sunday and Monday last, passed this place on their way to Belle Fontaine, 9 barges with the 6th Regt. U. S. infantry, commanded by Col. Atkinson. Eight of the boats came up together in front of the town on Monday, and made a very handsome appearance. The 5th Regiment of Infantry has left Detroit and proceeded by the way of Prairie du Chien to the mouth of St. Peter's river, near the falls of St. Anthony.

On Sunday arrived the Johnson, from Cape Girardeau, with U. S. stores, one of the fleet destined for the Missouri expedition.

New-York, July 12.

SHAMEFUL AND WICKED IMPOSITION.

On Sunday morning, the mayor received information that a number of persons had been landed in the night on pier No. 5, east river. At an early hour, the mayor and alderman, Hone, repaired to the place and found there three persons. One of them, as it appeared, in the last agonies of death; another so unwell and feeble that he was unable to stand; the third was well, & had been left in charge of a quantity of baggage deposited on the end of the wharf. The account the well man gave was, that they had taken passage in Ireland, on board an American brig, for this port; that they had been carried into Salem, and from thence shipped in a small schooner for this city; that they had made their passage from Salem by sea; had been out several days, and that they, with six or eight persons, had been landed on the wharf from the schooner the preceding night at about nine o'clock; that among the persons so landed, was a woman who was sick in consequence of having miscarried while on the passage in the schooner; that she, and all all but those who were then present, had gone into the city. No information, however, could be obtained as to where they might be found.

While the magistrates were conversing with this person, the wife of the sick man, having an infant in her arms, came on the wharf. She said, and no doubt told the truth, that they had been landed at Salem, as the man had represented, but that they had, about six or eight days since, been landed at Amboy—that the inhabitants of that place had, by subscription, raised a sum to pay the master of a small boat for bringing them up and landing them in the city. She said that this was the second cargo of their passengers from Ireland, which had been landed in the same way.

These poor wretches had, no doubt, been instructed by those who had so humanely contributed for their transportation to this city, from Amboy, to conceal the fact of their having last left that place, least they might be returned thither under the authority of our laws.

The condition of the sick person is represented as wretched beyond description. He was lying on the wharf for several hours without the least shelter or any one near him, covered with filth, and too feeble to protect himself against the flies, which were absolutely preying in swarms on his living body.

How detestable is the inhumanity of those, who, for the sake of preventing these helpless strangers from becoming a public charge at Amboy, could so unfeelingly expose them to every extremity of human wretchedness and to death itself.

The sick persons, with all the baggage, were immediately sent to the hospital at Staten Island. Measures, we understand, are taken to discover, if possible, as well the persons who were concerned in these shocking transactions, as the unfortunate people who have made their way into the city. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the mayor, for his indefatigable activity at this moment, to guard our city from the dangers that surround us on every side. ——— [Even. Post.

Newburgh, July 12.

ACCIDENT.

On the 5th inst. Solomon Connery, a lad of this village, loaded a common musket, with no more than an ordinary charge, and rolled in a bullet, something smaller than the bore of the gun, without a wad upon it, although apprised that there was danger in firing it without a wad, he discharged the gun, which burst. The charge and ball went out through the side of the gun and entirely took off the left hand, and shattered the stump in a most shocking manner.—Within a few minutes after the lad's arm was amputated by Doctors Miller and Gardiner.

DISTRESSING OCCURRENCE.

Wilkesbarre, (Penn.) July 9.

On Saturday night last, between 10 and 11 o'clock, the dwelling house of Mr. Jno. Scheller, in Bethany, was consumed by fire, and his two youngest children perished in the flames! The distracted parents having been absent at the commencement of this afflicting scene, arrived in time only to witness a spectacle of deplorable reality.

DROWNED.

At Cold Spring landing, on Monday the 5th inst. Mr. —— ———, a boatman, the body was picked up on Thursday, and a coroner's inquest was held over the body on Friday, who returned a verdict of accidental death by drowning, although suspicions were entertained, that he was murdered by two men who had been out with him in a small boat.

Hartford, July 12.

On the 27th of June last, the dead body of a man was found in a forest, near the town of Wetherfield. In consequence of the decayed state of the deceased, no personal description of him can be given, except that his hair was of a brown color—His wearing apparel consisting of a white cotton shirt, a dark brown woolen vest, and a pair of light olive or drab velvet pantaloons. An inquest was held on the body—verdict natural or accidental death.

New-York, July 7.

An unhappy occurrence took place at Fort Adams on Sunday evening last, at about 10 o'clock. Two young men, by the names of William Cornell and William Kane, both soldiers on guard, had a slight quarrel, which it seems grew out of mere sport, when the former discharged his musket at the latter, the contents of which entered his body, just above the hip, which caused his death in a few minutes after.—A jury of inquest was summoned on the following day, who, after a very careful investigation, brought in a verdict of WILFUL MURDER. Cornett was immediately given up to the civil authority, and is now in prison to await his trial; he is but seventeen years of age.

Albany, July 9.

NARROW ESCAPE.

On Friday evening last, as Mr. Brando and his wife, of the town of Windham, Green county, were driving under a shed to avoid a thunder storm, their wagon was struck with lightning, the tongue and whiffletree shivered in pieces, and their horses instantly killed; while Mr. and Mrs. Brando remained uninjured in the wagon.

Hartford (Conn.) July 13.

Last Saturday, afternoon, four of the convicts belonging to Newgate effected their escape. It appears that they were employed in a stone quarry, at some distance from the prison, under the care of a guard, whom they found means to overpower. Two of them, Larkin and Dixon, we learn, have since been taken. No person was seriously injured in the affray.

ADDRESS TO MARINERS PASSING THROUGH THE GULF OF FLORIDA.

Having observed in the course of long experience, that several masters of vessels, who had the misfortune to be cast away on the Martyrs and the coast of Florida, ignorant of the existence of any settlement at Cape Florida, have attempted to proceed to the northward in their boats, deprived of every assistance; I feel it incumbent upon me to inform such as may hereafter experience a like misfortune, that if they pass to the north side of Key Biscane, they will find the entrance of Boca Ratones, through which they can safely go with their boats, and they will see the houses in front, on the main land.

In case of shipwreck to the northward of Baco Ratones, at the distance of two miles therefrom, they will perceive Mangroves thinly scattered, from thence the houses may be seen; and in that situation, on making a signal with fire, or otherwise, they will obtain assistance.

If it should happen to the southward of New River, they may proceed southwardly along the beach, where they will meet, every four miles, with posts fixed in the ground, on which is an inscription in English, French and Spanish, informing where wells of fresh water have been purposely dug.

AN INHABITANT OF CAPE FLORIDA.

GEOLOGICAL.

Extract of a letter, dated Monroe, (formerly Fort Miro, on the Ouachita,) 7th June, 1819.

"The physical geography of this point of the Union has, I think, never been well explored, and is but superficially known. Some years ago, while on a journey to New-Orleans, in my boat, I was stopped by head winds about five miles below a place called Prairie des Cotes, 70 or 80 miles, by water, below Monroe. According to my custom, I took a survey of the country about me, and, while walking in a deep gully, among Pine Hills, I discovered a great quantity of sea shells, some of which had been so hardened by ipidific juices, that they were absolutely petrified. Some of the oyster shells were changed into a silex, which would make fire with steel. They all belonged to their analogies, now found in the sea—such as peitinitæ, madreporæ, &c. I could not, although I searched with great attention, find any of those shells which belonged to another epoch of the earth, such as ammonitæ, gryphitæ, belemnitæ, &c. The shells I found were not disposed in banks, as I have observed them in some of the Appenines in Italy, or in the lower Alps in Switzerland; they were scattered, and promiscuously mixed, generally well preserving their shapes, and easily known. This certainly denotes land belonging to the third age of the earth, and even not far distant; many ages, indeed; but, what are ages to the great works of Nature? We, poor, short lived beings, are obliged to divide time; but Nature's giant steps and divisions are such as it will probably be ever impossible for us to calculate. We can see the first epoch in those immense masses of granite which form the highest Alps, and which appear to have been always above the level of the ocean. The second epoch is well marked by the vast quantities of calcareous stones, in all their varieties, which cover the primitive earth, and even some kinds of granite, which appear to be of secondary formation. The third epoch has put our globe in its actual present position. But, who can say how many ages each epoch contains!"

LATEST FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

The brig Ocean, captain Clark, which arrived here this forenoon, sailed from her anchorage in the Rio de la Plata, on the 8th of May last—brings little news. The Buenos Ayrean government and Artegas have made an armistice, and it is rumored will both join against the Portuguese.—Previous to this, the troops of the former were daily deserting to Artegas.

The two corvette ships Horatio, captain Skinner, and Curiazo, capt. Delano, which our readers may remember sailed from N. York last September, for Buenos Ayres, still remain in that port—the former all under American colors, owing (as it is said) to some misunderstanding between that government and the parties concerned—the latter hoisted the Chilian flag a few days after her arrival, and is now in readiness to join lord Cochrane at Valparaiso.

From the Boston Palladium, July 9.

LATE FROM GIBRALTAR.

Capt. Covill, of the brig Adamant, who arrived yesterday, left Gibraltar, on the 3d of June, and informs that Spain had ratified the Treaty with the United States, ceding the Floridas, and providing for certain American claims—and presumes that the Hornet had sailed from Cadiz for New-York with the ratification.

Capt. C. also informs, that about the 25th of May, a patriot privateer, being in chase of a Spanish vessel, run on the rocks two or three miles to the westward of Tariffa, and bilged. The crew attempted to escape in their boats, but were pursued by Spanish launches, and all made prisoners, except the commander, who rather than be taken, threw himself overboard and was drowned. He had much specie in his possession, and there was said to be a large sum on board the privateer.

A merchant at Malaga, in a letter to his correspondent in this town, May 8, writes, "Our markets do by no means give encouragement to the importations of American produce. But prospects, thus far, for the ensuing vintage, are good, and fruit will be better and cheaper than last year."

A letter from Malaga, of May 14, says, "Our market is very dull, without any prospect of its growing better at present. It is overstocked with Sicily wheat, which is selling at great sacrifices. There is not the least demand for any article whatever of foreign produce."

A letter from Spain, dated May 15, says, "The expedition, consisting of 50,000 troops, is expected to sail from Cadiz in the course of a month. Its object is to make a final attempt for the reduction of the rebellion, by striking a blow upon every one of the revolted provinces at once, and thus endeavor to terminate the contest. The command is to be given to the Marquis d'Yrujo. Anxiety is seen in the countenance of every Spaniard, who wishes for the end of the civil war, while he secretly breathes a prayer for the success of the Patriots."

Mr. Topliff has favored us with Gibraltar papers to the 29th of May, received by the Adamant.

Gibraltar, May 22.

May 31, Private Bills on London, 90 days past at 50½ (had varied, June 2.)

From the New-York Gazette.

We know of no foreigner to whom the United States are under more obligations than the Marquis de la Fayette, nor do we know any whose departure from our shores was more regretted, or who left behind him more grateful and attached friends. His zeal in our public service, and his private virtues, alike entitle him to this high consideration. Of such a man the people of the United States will always be gratified to hear, when they can hear that he is steadfast to the principles of the revolution. Our readers will bear in mind that the following is from an English publication, that hatred of the French is patriotism in England, and that there, neither democratic principle nor democratic men, can expect "equal and exact justice." With these drawbacks the following article will be read with pleasure.

From the [London] Monthly Magazine.

THE MARQUIS DE LA FAYETTE.

M. de la Fayette, having from his youth fought for the American cause, was very early in life penetrated with the principles of liberty, which form the basis of the government of the United States. If he committed errors relative to the French revolution, they arose entirely from his admiration of the American institutions, and for the hero Washington—who guided the steps of his nation in the path of independence.

M. de la Fayette, young, rich, noble, beloved by his country, quitted all these advantages at the age of nineteen, to serve, beyond the seas, this cause of liberty, the love of which decided the character of his whole life. Had he been so happy as to have been born in America, his conduct would have been that of Washington;—the same disinterestedness, the same enthusiasm, the same perseverance in their opinions—and they were alike equally distinguished as warm friends of humanity and benevolence.

Had general Washington been placed in the situation of the marquis de la Fayette, chief of the National Guards of Paris, he very probably would not have been able to triumph over circumstances; but would have failed in the attempt to preserve his vows of fidelity to his king, at the same time that he wished to establish the liberty of the nation.

It must, however, be acknowledged, that M. de la Fayette is a determined republican; yet none of the vanities of his class ever entered his head; power, the effect of which is so great in France, had not the least ascendency over him; the desire of pleasing in the drawing room did not at all modify the expression of his sentiments; and he sacrificed his fortune to his opinions with the most generous indifference.

In the prison of Olmutz, as at the moment when his credit stood highest, he remained equally unshaken in his principles. He is a man whose manner of seeing and acting has always been direct and consistent. Whoever attentively observed him, might previously calculate with certainty upon what he would do under all circumstances. His political talents are similar to those of the United States; and his face is more English than French.

The hatred of which M. de la Fayette is the object, has failed to sour his character; and his mildness of disposition is undisturbed: but it is equally true, that nothing has been able to change, or in the slightest degree vary his opinions; and his confidence that liberty will be triumphant, is as great as that of a pious man in the life to come. These sentiments, so different, so contrary to the selfish calculations of the major part of those men who have played any part in France, may justly appear to some persons worthy of praise and commisseration: it is so silly, they say, to prefer one's country, and not to change one's party, when his party is beaten;—in short, to consider the human race, not like a pack of cards, that we are obliged to turn to our advantage, but as the sacred object of an absolute devotion.—Nevertheless, if we thus incur the the reproach of silliness, may our men of genius soon merit it.

It is a very singular circumstance, that such a character as that of M. La. Fayette should have manifested itself in the person of one of the first gentlemen in France; but we can neither accuse nor judge him impartially without knowing him, and seeing his conduct in the light I have here painted it. It will then be easy to comprehend the various contrasts that arose out of his situation, and his manner of acting. Supporting the more from duty than inclination, he involuntarily drew nearer those principles of democracy which he was obliged to oppose; and it was possible to perceive him lean towards the friends of the republic, though his reason and good sense forbad him to wish their system admitted in France.

Since the departure of M. la Fayette for America, which is now 40 years, it is not possible to mention one action or one word, that has not kept steadily in the same line, without his conduct ever having been influenced by the least personal interest.—Success would have relieved this manner of existence; but it demands all the attention of the historian, notwithstanding the circumstances, and even faults, which serve the enemy as weapons.

Such is the portrait given by Madame de Stael of M. la Fayette, one of the most modest and unassuming, as well as most celebrated of men. We hope, in another number, to give an account of the same person by Lady Morgan. It will be interesting to oppose the judgment of these two celebrated women to the absurd stories and miserable calumnies of the general's enemies. It was not sufficient for them to attack his reputation, they must also find fault with his constitution in a physical sense. It is well known that Gen. la Fayette is about 60 years old; that he enjoys a perfect state of health; that his gaiety and tranquility are unalterable; that all his pleasures are centered in a domestic life; and that his only passion is to see, consolidated, the constitutional liberty of his country. He is said to be eighty years of age; overwhelmed with infirmities; afflicted with a deafness that prevents his understanding any conversation without the assistance of a trumpet; his disposition gloomy and morose; and to complete the picture, he is devoured by ambition. It is only just that the public should be informed of these little ruses de guerre, which will doubtless be renewed each time it becomes a question of adding Gen. la Fayette to the legislative body. It is very natural, that a man of his character and disposition, who has always been constant in his principles and his disinterestedness, should displease those persons whom we have so often seen opposed to themselves in their opinions, but always faithful to their principles of arbitrary sway.

Camp Meeting.

There will be a camp meeting held on the 11th of August next, in the county of St. Mary's, Maryland, on Snow Hill Manor, on the south side of St. Mary's river, about five miles from its mouth, on the lands of Mr. Wm. Bennett. The river is navigable for vessels of any description—and the harbor excellent.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY on the 25th of April last, a man called NED, formerly the property of Mr. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax, and by him sold to Hepburn & Dundas. He had on when he went away an old country blue and white cloth coat, and kersey trowsers—his right hand in a sling, in consequence of the kick of a horse. Ned is a stupid looking fellow, and hesitates very much when he speaks. I will give the above reward for apprehending him, so that I get him again.

SALES AT AUCTION.

Public Sale.

ON THIS DAY, the 17th instant, at 12 o'clock of that day, by virtue of a deed of trust, we will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on the premises, that very valuable tract of land in Fairfax county, near Holmes's Run, and about four miles from Alexandria, generally known by the name of containing about 115 acres. This land is about one half in wood—the balance cleared, and in cultivation, with convenient buildings on it, and excellent water near them. A considerable proportion of the open land is fertile, and well calculated for timothy meadows.

The sum of $2,254 77 cts will be required to be paid in cash; for the residue a credit of twelve months will be given from the day of sale, the purchaser paying interest thereon, and giving satisfactory security for the punctual payment thereof. A conveyance will be made when the purchase money and interest is all paid up. If the terms of the sale should not be complied with by the purchaser, the premises will be immediately re-sold to the highest bidder, at the risque of the person to whom it shall have been struck off; and the same course will be repeated until an effectual sale shall have taken place.

Lands for Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale.

On WEDNESDAY, the 18th AUGUST in Port Tobacco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called lying and being in Charles county Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Matawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood.

ALSO,

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Sam'l Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
